“Eclectic Mix”

Kearney Concert Association Youth Concert

Thursday, April 8 ◆ 1:10-2:00 pm

Merryman Performing Arts Center

225 West 22nd Street

Kearney, NE

A free event, thanks to generous underwriting*.

You and your students are cordially invited to attend the Kearney Concert Association’s Youth Concert, “Eclectic Mix.”

Home Free (www.homefreevocalband.com) will engage young audiences with a rich blend of harmonies in an educational setting. Built upon the acoustic beauty of “a cappella” and combined with one astounding vocal percussionist, students will enjoy a musical style Home Free calls “an eclectic mix of everything.”

Kearney Concert Association Youth Concerts feature exciting repertoire as well as interactive and directed listening activities to keep students focused and involved.

In addition, the Great Platte River Road Archway Monument, the Museum of Nebraska Art, the Nebraska Firefighter Museum, and Trails and Rails Museum will all be happy to provide you with additional educational opportunities on our concert day. So why not make a day of it? (Archway 308.237.1000, MONA 308.865.8559, NEFirefighters 308.338.3473, Trails & Rails 308.234.3041)

National Standards for Music Education: 6, 7, 8, 9

*The Kearney Concert Association Youth Concert is supported by the Kearney Concert Association Endowment with additional underwriting by area foundations, corporations and individuals.
